Owners: Bernard and Elizabeth Hooley
Being close to Geelong, there is something magical about a small boutique winery named Oakdene. As a young child Bernard migrated from Shanghai and after finishing his schooling he began his adult life in Geelong. In 2001 Bernard and his wife Elizabeth purchased the land. While Bernard focused on planting the vines, Elizabeth concentrated on restoring the 1920's home which is now the winery. They now grow eight grape varieties, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Gris, Shiraz, Ponot Noir, Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon. Dedication to excellence in the vineyard has produced immediate results with wines awarded medals and trophies in major wine shows and a 5 star rating in James Halliday's Australian Wine Companion for the past four years.
Oakdene is also known for its fine dining and recently opened a more casual Alfresco venue named 'Mr Grubb'.
