FUNCTION NOTICE.

BALLARAT REGION.

(Including the dinner and the evening show.)

"BLOOD ON THE SOUTHERN CROSS."

Date: SATURDAY 16th August 2008.

Presidents Report: Dear Members,

Terry Coles and I researched the possibility of extending the Ballarat tour function into a weekender. Unfortunately it proved to be far too expensive and unjustifiable at over $200.00 per person. We decided that a one-day tour, starting later, visiting the wineries and then concluding with the dinner and show would be better value.

Leaving Narre Warren at 9.00am, our first stop will be at St. Anne's Winery at Myrniong. Here we will meet Angus McLean, son of Alan and Shirley McLean, Ginnie, Angus's partner and Ella, Cellar sales person. We will have a BBQ lunch at the vineyard accompanied with St. Anne's wines.

Dulcinea Winery at Sulky is our next stop where we will meet with owner/ winemaker Rod Stott and his wife Veronica. Very affordable range of wines including a white and red sparkling wine.

Mt. Coghill Winery at Coghills Creek is an exciting cellar door only winery where we will meet Ian and Margaret Pym. The wines are very well made at Eastern Peak Vineyard next door. Ian produces a Rosé, unwooded & wooded Chardonnay and a Pinot Noir. See Ian's photo's on the wine labels.

Ian will set up a marquee for our tasting and also display some of his photographic skills as a much respected photographer around Victoria.

"BLOOD ON THE SOUTHERN CROSS" show and dinner at 5.30pm.

Book now, bring along your friends and enjoy another memorable Wine Guild one-day tour. See you there. Bob.

Cost: Members $110.00. Non Members $120.00.

RSVP: Wednesday 6th August 2008.
