FUNCTION NOTICE WARRAGUL REGION TOUR

Date: SUNDAY 21st MARCH 2010
Presidents Report:

Dear Members,
The first Coach Tour for 2010 is to the Warragul Region, visiting an area not visited by the Guild for some years.
Wineries chosen for this tour have been selected for their point of difference.

Gypsy Creek Wines Est. 1997 at Labertouche and owned by Sam and Mary Dardha. They are noted for their award winning Cabernet, Shiraz and Pinot Noir. A beautiful Chardonnay and a sparkling wine are amongst the best in the region.

Brandy Creek Wines Est. 2005 at Drouin East, owners Marie McDonald and Rick Stockdale operate a highly acclaimed restaurant, with a large sales area and tasting room. Their range not only includes old favourites – Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Rose and Shiraz, but some new estate grown varieties including Tempranillo, Pinot Gris and a sparkling Pinot Gris. A variety of Tapas Spanish style cuisine has been chosen with wines to match, for our lunch.

Wild Dog Winery Est. 1992 has been visited by the Guild in past years. New owners, the Surman family, have completely demolished the old buildings and built a 150 seat restaurant along with a large sales and tasting area. Beautifully landscaped trees and lawn surround the building. Here we meet up with owner Luke Surman. A tasting and tour has been arranged.

As with all of our past Coach Tours, time is usually limited, but the Guild Committee has always tried to include the best wineries in the area, fantastic food, with the emphasis on having a great experience.

Book now, bring along your guests and enjoy another memorable Wine Service Guild one-day tour. See you there. Bob.

Cost: Members: $75.00 Non Members: $85.00
